

Tate Woods staff and students would like to thank the LEHSO for funding the Earth Balloon. Students were able to go inside the balloon for a unique view of our planet on February 19, 2016 . We noticed how much water covers the Earth and located the continents. Additionally, our instructor was able to point out the path of our adopted sea turtle, Tinker Bell.

